

Certificate of Completion

This is to certify that

Sophie Delaunay

Successfully completed the course entitled

Medication Awareness and Safe Handling of Medicines

Learning outcomes include:

The importance of good record-keeping; What are Medication Administration Records; What to request on a repeat prescription; The difference between repeat and acute medicine; Treating minor ailments; How to store medicines; The safe disposal of medicines; Administering medication; What to do if someone is unable to swallow; Covert administration of medication; The use of monitored dosage systems; What is secondary dispensing; The importance of ensuring privacy, confidentiality and dignity; Dealing with controlled drugs; Training for care workers; Reporting errors; Transfers to other settings.

Award date
11 September 2019